Job Title: Student Life Fellow for Academic Advising & Discoveries Orientation

To Apply: Please send resume and cover letter to advising@du.edu with the subject line “SL Fellow for Academic Advising” by Friday, April 29th.

Office Information/Purpose:
Academic Resources is home to four offices dedicated to assisting students with a range of academic issues. It includes:

- Academic Advising—Our academic advisors meet one-on-one with students throughout the year to map out academic plans and make sure students are on track to graduation.
- Discoveries Orientation—From the moment students step on campus for orientation, they will meet other University of Denver students, faculty and staff who will challenge them to explore their intellectual potential and help them navigate their way around.
- The Disability Services Program (DSP)—DSP is able to support students if they need special accommodations such as assistive technology or extended test taking.
- The Learning Effectiveness Program (LEP)—If students need additional academic support, they can enroll in LEP to receive individualized academic counseling, tutoring and organizational help.

All of these offices are committed to helping students achieve academic success and developmental growth during their years on campus.

Job Summary/Position Details:
The Student Life Fellow for Academic Advising and Discoveries Orientation (AADO) has a minimum 13-hour per week appointment with the Advising & Orientation office.
