The Ritchie Program for School Leaders: Executive Leadership for Successful Schools (Ritchie ELSS), in partnership with mountain area school districts, provides educators the opportunity to earn a license to become a principal in the state of Colorado. This cohort-based program is taught by DU faculty and professionals from mountain school districts in a blended learning format: interactive online study, weekend workshops, monthly evening seminars, and varied field experiences. Workshops (1-2 Saturdays per quarter) will be held in a central location for mountain district participants for a total of 6 face-to-face workshops throughout the program. For more information about this program, please contact the Educational Leadership and Policy Studies faculty member, Dr. Ellen Miller-Brown at ellen.miller-brown@du.edu.
