

Graduate Service Assistant
Morgridge Academic and Student Services (MASA)
University of Denver
Morgridge College of Education

College Mission Statement:

The Morgridge College of Education advances learning, well-being, and social justice by preparing reflective, skilled, and compassionate educators, counselors, and leaders who transform lives and strengthen communities. At Morgridge, we believe that education and human development are powerful forces for creating a more just and humane world. Through engaged teaching, rigorous and innovative scholarship and active partnerships with local and global communities, we cultivate critical and creative thought, advance knowledge, and contribute to the public good. Our work centers equity, combats discrimination, and embraces the multiplicity of human experiences so that our graduates can lead meaningful change across educational, mental health, and community systems.

Department Summary

MCE is a leader in innovative and effective approaches for promoting learning throughout the lifespan. Transcending traditional ideas about education and schooling, we embrace a new, comprehensive vision of learning as a lifelong activity that involves the whole person and can occur through a variety of methods, anywhere and at any time. We promote educational change and social equity in addition to providing leadership for the improvement of education, mental health, and information services and systems.

Position Summary

The Academic & Student Services Graduate Assistant supports student success initiatives within the College by assisting with academic advising coordination, student engagement programming, and front-facing student services. This role provides administrative and programmatic support for orientation, retention initiatives, and other student-centered activities.

The position is ideal for graduate students interested in higher education administration, student affairs, academic advising, or leadership in postsecondary education.

Essential Functions

Graduate Assistants will support the assigned unit in a variety of ways depending on the specific type of assistant role they are selected to perform. Duties may include but are not limited to:

Event Planning & Student Engagement

- Assist with planning and execution of student events such as new student orientation, welcome week, workshops, graduation celebrations, and recognition events
- Coordinate logistics including room reservations, catering, materials preparation, and day-of-event support
- Support marketing and outreach efforts through email campaigns, flyers, and social media posts
- Track event participation and assist with post-event assessment

Academic & Administrative Support

- Assist with data entry and tracking related to enrollment, retention, and student engagement initiatives
- Support preparation of reports and presentations related to student success initiatives
- Maintain organized records and documentation
- Assist with special projects and ad-hoc assignments as needed

Student Support & Advising Assistance

- Assist with coordination of academic advising processes, including appointment scheduling, tracking student progress, and maintaining advising records
- Support communication with students regarding registration, academic deadlines, and university policies
- Help prepare advising materials and student success resources
- Provide front-desk or front-facing support by greeting students and directing them to appropriate services
- Respond to student inquiries via email, phone, and in person in a professional and timely manner

Communications & Outreach

- Assist in developing and distributing newsletters to students (e.g., monthly updates, advising reminders, event highlights)
- Draft and schedule social media content to promote events, deadlines, student resources, and achievements
- Support website updates and maintain current information related to academic and student services
- Assist with targeted email campaigns and other outreach efforts
- Help create marketing materials such as flyers, digital graphics, and announcements
- Monitor engagement metrics and provide basic reports on communication effectiveness

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities

(May include, but not limited to:)

- Interest in enrollment, retention, event planning
- Attention to detail in reviewing complex information.
- Discretion in working with sensitive or personal information.
- Demonstrated dependability and follow through with tasks and assignments.

Eligibility

GXA recipients must be enrolled in a Morgridge College of Education academic program and be in good academic standing during the quarters in which they receive their award (programs/departments may stipulate that the recipient must be enrolled as a full-time student).

International students who receive a GXA may need to demonstrate fluency in spoken English by scoring a 26 on the speaking section of the TOEFL, or an 8 on the speaking section of the IELTS and/or by passing the DU GTA English Language Proficiency Assessment (ELPA). International students whose native language is clearly English are exempt from the TSE.

Students cannot simultaneously hold both an assistantship position and a work-study position. A graduate student may not hold more than the equivalent of one full-time (1.0) assistantship at any time within the University.

A doctoral PhD student may remain in a GXA position for a maximum of 3 years or 9 quarters, an EdD, EdS or master's student a maximum of 2 years or 6 quarters

For more information regarding eligibility requirements and hiring procedures for graduate assistantships, see the Graduate Assistantship section of the Graduate Bulletin and the MCE GXA Handbook. Individual programs may have their own procedures and requirements.

Graduate Assistant Compensation

The yearly total for a full time Assistantship stipend for MA/EdS/EdD students is $19,495, and the total for a full time Assistantship stipend for a PhD student is $21,418. If you receive a part-time assistantship, your stipend amount will be adjusted accordingly.

Assistantship offers will include both a monthly stipend and a tuition waiver for credit bearing students. Full-time graduate assistants who meet the eligibility requirements will also be offered the Graduate Assistantship Health Insurance Scholarship. The stipend amount varies (per 9-month academic year), depending on degree pursuit (MS or PhD), and assistantship type (.25, .50, .75, 1.0). The tuition waiver provided will be in conjunction with the tuition rate for that academic year for the program you are studying. The tuition waiver benefit ranges from 6 to 24 credit hours depending on the amount of FTE for the full academic year. Any position less than full time (1.0 FTE) will NOT include the Graduate Assistantship Health Insurance Scholarship but will include a part-time stipend and part-time tuition waiver, accordingly.

Assistantship awards can be made for any single or multiple quarters.

Time Commitment

In general, half-time graduate assistants (0.5 FTE) are expected to devote 10 hours per week to their GA duties.

Benefits

Assistantship stipends are paid through payroll and are taxable income. Full-time 9-month assistantship stipends are based on university budgeting for that academic year and will be specified by the department at the time of offer.

Assistantship tuition waivers are considered merit-based scholarships and are not taxable income. Tuition waivers are adequate to cover 6-24 credit hours of tuition per year, based on the tuition rates at the time of application.

The combination of all tuition waivers cannot exceed tuition charges (prior to any assessed fees), and waivers cannot be awarded in cash.

Information about the benefits offered to Graduate Assistants at the University of Denver can be found under the Non-benefitted Employees section of the Human Resources & Inclusive Community webpage.

Application Details

Please submit your Resume/CV through Pioneer Careers.

Programs use their own internal processes to award assistantships to students. If you are chosen for a Graduate Assistant position, you will be contacted by the department and given all the details regarding the position.

Please be aware that resumes submitted through PCO will go through an automatic review process by the Career & Professional Development staff. While this may take extra time on your part if revisions are needed, it's to support you in submitting the most competitive application possible. You will not be able to submit your full application until the resume has been reviewed and approved. Please allow at least 3 days before the application deadline for this step. Due to the expected volume of applications, do not wait until right before the deadline to apply as your resume could be delayed in the review process.

To be proactive, check out the PCO website with resume and cover letter samples. Make changes prior to submission. This will increase the likelihood your resume can be pushed through without going through a major overhaul, allowing you to apply to student employment positions quickly. For help with this process, contact stuemp@du.edu.

The University of Denver is committed to enhancing the diversity of its faculty and staff. We are an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment regardless of age, race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, military/ veteran status or any other status protected by law.
