

University of Denver
Morgridge College of Education
Academic Unit
MCE Graduate Assistantship – Department/Program

Department Summary

MCE is a leader in innovative and effective approaches for promoting learning throughout the lifespan. Transcending traditional ideas about education and schooling, we embrace a new, comprehensive vision of learning as a lifelong activity that involves the whole person and can occur through a variety of methods, anywhere and at any time. We promote educational change and social equity in addition to providing leadership for the improvement of education, mental health, and information services and systems.

Position Summary

This is a Graduate Assistantship that includes a tuition waiver and stipend. This position will help with various projects related to teaching, research and scholarship, working directly with a members of the Morgridge College of Education faculty.

Essential Functions

Teaching Assistants

Knowledge

- Subject matter expertise in assigned academic discipline
- Fundamental instructional methods and pedagogy
- Curriculum design and learning outcomes development
- Assessment and grading principles
- Institutional academic policies and procedures
- Basic learning management systems (e.g., Canvas, Blackboard)

Skills

- Verbal and written communication
- Lesson planning and instructional material development
- Public speaking and presentation
- Classroom facilitation and discussion leadership
- Tutoring and academic coaching
- Assessment design and grading with constructive feedback
- Time management and organization

Morgridge College of Education

UNIVERSITY OF DENVER

- Basic educational technology use

Abilities

- Explain complex concepts clearly to diverse learners
 - Lead and manage classroom or lab environments
 - Evaluate student performance objectively
 - Adapt teaching methods to different learning styles
 - Maintain confidentiality and academic integrity
 - Work independently and collaboratively with faculty
-

Research Assistants

Knowledge

- Research methodology (quantitative and/or qualitative)
- Data collection and data management procedures
- Statistical concepts and analysis techniques
- Ethical standards in research (e.g., IRB compliance)
- Quality control and data integrity principles
- Academic writing and reporting standards

Skills

- Data entry, scoring, and database management
- Conducting interviews and administering assessments
- Statistical software proficiency (e.g., SPSS, R, Excel, Python)
- Analytical and critical thinking
- Technical writing and report preparation
- Information literacy and literature review

Abilities

- Maintain accuracy and attention to detail in data handling
- Analyze and interpret data objectively
- Maintain confidentiality of research participants
- Identify inconsistencies or errors in datasets

Morgridge College
of Education

UNIVERSITY OF DENVER

- Work systematically to meet research deadlines
- Collaborate effectively within research teams

Eligibility

GXA recipients must be enrolled in a Morgridge College of Education academic program and be in good academic standing during the quarters in which they receive their award (programs/departments may stipulate that the recipient must be enrolled as a full-time student).

International students who receive a GXA may need to demonstrate fluency in spoken English by scoring a 26 on the speaking section of the TOEFL, or an 8 on the speaking section of the IELTS and/or by passing the DU GTA English Language Proficiency Assessment (ELPA). International students whose native language is clearly English are exempt from the TSE.

Students cannot simultaneously hold both an assistantship position and a work-study position. A graduate student may not hold more than the equivalent of one full-time (1.0) assistantship at any time within the University.

A doctoral PhD student may remain in a GXA position for a maximum of 3 years or 9 quarters, an EdD, EdS or master's student a maximum of 2 years or 6 quarters

For more information regarding eligibility requirements and hiring procedures for graduate assistantships, see the Graduate Assistantship section of the Graduate Bulletin and the MCE GXA Handbook. Individual programs may have their own procedures and requirements.

Required Qualifications

- Current DU/MCE graduate student enrolled for the 2026-2027 academic year.

Preferred Qualifications

- Prior experience as an undergraduate student leader
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Demonstrated organizational and administrative skills
- Interest in public speaking and presentations; student-facing interactions

Supervision & Training

- Will report to the faculty member

Working Environment

- Open-office environment.
- Unexpected interruptions often occur, and stress level is moderate to high.
- Noise level is quiet to moderate.

Physical Activities

- Ability to sit in front of a computer for an extended period.
- Occasionally required to move about the office/campus with the capability of transporting objects up to 20 lbs.

Graduate Assistant Compensation

The yearly total for a full time Assistantship stipend for MA/EdS/EdD students is $19,495, and the total for a full time Assistantship stipend for a PhD student is $21,418. If you receive a part-time assistantship, your stipend amount will be adjusted accordingly.

Assistantship offers will include both a monthly stipend and a tuition waiver for credit bearing students. Full-time graduate assistants who meet the eligibility requirements will also be offered the Graduate Assistantship Health Insurance Scholarship. The stipend amount varies (per 9-month academic year), depending on degree pursuit (MS or PhD), and assistantship type (.25, .50, .75, 1.0). The tuition waiver provided will be in conjunction with the tuition rate for that academic year for the program you are studying. The tuition waiver benefit ranges from 6 to 24 credit hours depending on the amount of FTE for the full academic year. Any position less than full time (1.0 FTE) will NOT include the Graduate Assistantship Health Insurance Scholarship but will include a part-time stipend and part-time tuition waiver, accordingly.

Time Commitment

In general, half-time graduate assistants (0.5 FTE) are expected to devote 10 hours per week to their GA duties.

Benefits

Assistantship stipends are paid through payroll and are taxable income. Full-time 9-month assistantship stipends are based on university budgeting for that academic year and will be specified by the department at the time of offer.

Assistantship tuition waivers are considered merit-based scholarships and are not taxable income. Tuition waivers are adequate to cover 6-24 credit hours of tuition per year, based on the tuition rates at the time of application.

The combination of all tuition waivers cannot exceed tuition charges (prior to any assessed fees), and waivers cannot be awarded in cash.

Information about the benefits offered to Graduate Assistants at the University of Denver can be found under the Non-benefitted Employees section of the Human Resources & Inclusive Community webpage.

Application Details

Please submit your Resume/CV through Pioneer Careers.

Programs use their own internal processes to award assistantships to students. If you are chosen for a Graduate Assistant position, you will be contacted by the department and given all the details regarding the position.

Please be aware that resumes submitted through PCO will go through an automatic review process by the Career & Professional Development staff. While this may take extra time on your part if revisions are needed, it's to support you in submitting the most competitive application possible. You will not be able to submit your full application until the resume has been reviewed and approved. Please allow at least 3 days before the application deadline for this step. Due to the expected volume of applications, do not wait until right before the deadline to apply as your resume could be delayed in the review process.

To be proactive, check out the PCO website with resume and cover letter samples. Make changes prior to submission. This will increase the likelihood your resume can be pushed through without going through a major overhaul, allowing you to apply to student employment positions quickly. For help with this process, contact stuemp@du.edu.

The University of Denver is committed to enhancing the diversity of its faculty and staff. We are an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment regardless of age, race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, military/ veteran status or any other status protected by law.

All offers of GA Appointments are based upon satisfactory completion of a criminal history background check